1) CALL TO ORDER by Vice-President Kirlin at 8:37am

2) APPROVAL OF PURCHASE OF IN CAR VIDEOS FOR THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Town Marshal Dorsett presented photos of the in-car video cameras he wants to purchase for the police department. He explained that in-car video cameras are a must for the police department, and he wants to replace the existing out dated cameras they now use. He would like to purchase four units, at a cost of $400.00 a piece. The money will come out of the Drug Fund. The cameras he would like to purchase are six to twelve months old. The Brown County Sheriff's Department will give them two of their older cameras to fit in our other cars.

Councilmember King made a motion to authorize this purchase. Councilmember Cassidy seconded the motion. All were unanimously in favor.
