TO: Nashville Tree Board

SUBJECT: TREE BOARD MEETING

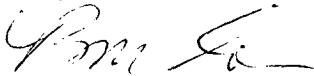

A Tree Board meeting was scheduled on April 9, 2009, at 8:30 am at the Nashville Town Hall. Bruce Gould was the only member to attend.

No business was discussed.

Marge Grim on N. Johnson Street has complained a number of times about the large maple tree in front of her house. There is one dead limb that should probably be removed but would require a high-lift truck. The rest of the tree is in good condition. In all likelihood if the limb would fall, it would land in the yard and not on the house.

The most dangerous tree in town right now is in front of the Allison House on South Jefferson Street. If at all possible, this tree should be removed.

Respectfully,
