NASHVILLE REDEVELOPMENT COMMISSION MEETING FEBRUARY 5, 2019

Brown County Redevelopment Commission Member Jim Shultz invited members of the Nashville RDC to attend the BCRDC meetings and participate in the county economic development plans. All members expressed interested and President Dan Snow noted he would be attending.

Secretary Kelso suggested that the Nashville Redevelopment Commission should be looking at a few initiatives for the next twelve months. Whether it is efforts to expand the business season or making Salt Creek Plaza more pedestrian friendly and any of a multitude of issues. BCRDC Member Shultz commented on the impacts of the soon to open Music and Entertainment Center. After a lengthy, energetic, and enthusiastic open discussion regarding development and impacts of new development in the town and county and needs of collaboration between various groups, the Commission was charged with bringing ideas to the next Nashville RDC meeting.

9) ADJOURNMENT

Having no further business, President Snow asked for a motion to adjourn. Vice-President Gore made a motion to adjourn. Secretary Kelso seconded. The meeting adjourned at 5:21pm.
